

Year 7 Catch up 2018/19

(Correct at November 2018)

Catch up is what the school is doing for the pupils who did not meet the expected national standard in the SAT test at the end of Year 6.

Finance

16/17 The school received £10783

17/18 The school received £11377

18/19 The school will receive approximately £11000

Current Interventions and teaching which will support catch up

Maths HLTA targeted intervention and support in Maths lessons.

English HLTA targeted intervention and support for Year 7 pupils not meeting the standard in Year 6

An additional LSA has been employed on a full time basis for English (part fund salary)

An additional LSA has been employed on a full time basis in maths (part fund salary)

Smaller class sizes for weekly Maths and English lessons for catch up year 7 set.

Colleague from North Tyneside Learning Trust employed to support maths teaching catch up

All staff in school have now received inference training. (Oct 2018)

Current Year 7 pupils

Reading - 28 pupils have received their usual allocation of English lessons as well as 2 additional hours of small group to address specific skills. They will take a re-test in November to measure their progress.

Maths - 13 pupils were in the 1st wave of intervention where they had additional support in all of their 5 maths lessons a week. in some of these lessons they worked in a break out room to address specific skills. 9/13 have now met the standard. the 2nd wave of pupils starts in November.

Impact on the current Year 8 cohort (at the end of Y7)

MATHS - 32 pupils did not make the standard during the Year 6 SAT test. 8 pupils have now left the school, there are 25 remaining pupils. 13 pupils have now caught up with their peers

READING – 37 pupils did not make the standard during the Year 6 SATS test. 8 pupils have now left. 22 have now caught up (60%) with their peers.

WRITING- 19 pupils did not make the standard during Year 6 SAT test. 10 (45%) of these pupils have now caught up.